

ADL 362

“INTRODUCTION TO SFA”

ADL 362 “INTRODUCTION TO SECURITY FORCE ASSISTANCE (SFA)”

(ETOC Code: MCP-CM-15557)

AIM

To illustrate how the Security Force Assistance Concept (MCM-0034-2014) has been originated in NATO and how SFA is intended by the reference of NATO publication, the AJP 3.16 - Allied Joint Doctrine for Security Force Assistance.

The course also provides participants of the residential SFA training solutions (e.g. “SFA Operators Course” and “Institutional Advisor Course”) with a general overview, useful to create a common picture which will be further investigated during the residential courses.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Position:

- NATO and its Partners SFA Operators (Advisers, Mentors and Trainers) and planners both military and civilian working in NATO SFA operations.
- Individuals, both military and civilian, working in NATO HQ IS/IMS, NATO Allied Command Operations (HQ SHAPE, Joint Force Commands and Component Commands), NATO Allied Command Transformation (HQ SACT), COEs, NATO Force Structure and those who support SFA Operators (supporting staff).
- Personnel in academia, IOs, GOs, NGOs, interagency, intergovernmental.
- Personnel working in S&R/SSR projects and wider development context (incl. possible counterparts from priority regions/countries).

TRAINING STRATEGY

The course has been planned as e-learning solution, available on NATO Joint Advanced Distributed Learning (JADL). A final test as diagnostic assessment.
